

A 25kW marine radar (Furuno FR-1525Mk3; Transceiver module RTR-063) will be used to track bird and bat activity in areas of existing and planned wind turbine development as well as comparative control sites.

The radar will be mounted to a mobile trailer and operated at a height less than 4 meters above the ground.