

ATTACHMENT

- 3b. Principal stockholders of Ericsson GE Mobile Communications Holding Inc. are:

Telefonaktiebolaget LM Ericsson (60%), a leading telecommunications company, with more than 65,000 employees and operations in 80 countries. Its operations are organized in seven business areas: public telecommunications, radio communications, business communications, cable and network, components and defense systems; and

General Electric Company (40%), a leading U.S. corporation with more than 300,000 employees with operations in the major business areas of lighting, appliances, aerospace, aircraft engines, medical systems, financial systems, plastics, broadcasting (NBC), transportation power systems, and communication and services.