Dear Mr. Knapp,

This submission is a request for Special Temporary Authority (STA) for short duration tests of Lync Global, Inc's (formerly known as UbiquitiLink, Inc.) concept of operations.

Our payload will launch on a SpaceX launch vehicle, currently scheduled for flight in March 2020, and will be assembled on orbit at the International Space Station by astronauts in June of 2020.

We have made a formal request for key sensitive information to be redacted from the public posting of the application. Pursuant to Sections 0.457 and 0.459 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.457 and 0.459, the Commission may withhold from public inspection and accord confidential treatment to certain material related to this application. We have attached the details of this request in a separate document, and have provided a public version of the STA application in which we have redacted information that qualifies as trade secrets and confidential information under Exception 4 of the Freedom of Information Act.

We are available for any additional support you or your team requires in reviewing this request. Thank you for the consideration of our application, redaction request, and your time.

Best Regards,
