

Attachment to STA application

The operations will be to test the functionality of the equipment. The equipment currently operates in several locations pursuant to experimental authority. This application seeks to operate the equipment for a limited amount of time in a laboratory environment.