Public Interest Statement

Virginia Electric & Power Company (“Licensee”) holds experimental licenses under Call Signs WL2XIA and WN2XPY (the “Experimental Licenses”).

Section 5.79 of the Federal Communications Commission’s (“FCC” or “Commission”) rules, 47 C.F.R. § 5.79, provides that a station authorization for a conventional experimental radio license, the frequencies authorized to be used by the grantee of such authorization, and the rights therein granted by such authorization shall not be transferred or assigned unless the Commission decides that such a transfer is in the public interest and gives its consent in writing.

Concurrent with this FCC Form 703, Licensee has submitted an FCC Form 603 application requesting consent from the FCC to the indirect transfer of control of the Licensee from Dominion Energy, Inc. (“Dominion Energy”) to NextEra Energy, Inc. (“NextEra Energy”) with respect to Licensee’s wireless authorizations.¹

For the reasons set forth in the Public Interest Statement and Description of The Transaction included in the FCC Form 603, Licensee respectfully submits that Commission consent to the indirect transfer of control of Licensee with respect to the Experimental Licenses will serve the public interest and requests consent from the FCC to such transfer for its experimental licenses.
