Change in FCC Grantee Code
FCC ID : LDK102035

Aironet Wireless Communications is being purchased by Cisco Systems. After the final date of close, all products will be sold under the Cisco trade name and use the Cisco FCC grantee code for the current line of products.

There will be no changes made to the current radio and it will be identical to the present model. Certified under the Aironet file FCC ID: LOZ102035.

The Aironet FCC Grantee code (LOZ) will be replaced by the Cisco Grantee Code (LDK)

Please feel free to contact me if any further information is needed.
