Answer to Question 13

SAVVIS, Inc. and CenturyLink, Inc. both are publicly traded corporations. Pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger entered into as of April 26, 2011 among CenturyLink, Inc. (CenturyLink), Mimi Acquisition Company (MergerSub), a wholly-owned subsidiary of CenturyLink, and SAVVIS, Inc. (SAVVIS Holdings), following all necessary approvals, including approvals by SAVVIS Holdings' shareholders, MergerSub will be merged with and into SAVVIS Holdings, and MergerSub will cease to exist. In this manner, SAVVIS Holdings, the surviving entity of the merger with MergerSub, will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of CenturyLink. SAVVIS Holdings' shareholders will exchange each share of their stock for cash and a fraction of a share of CenturyLink's stock,¹ and SAVVIS Holdings' stock will cease to be traded.

¹ The total value of the transaction is estimated at about $3.2 billion, of which about $2.5 billion will be paid by CenturyLink in cash and stock to SAVVIS Holdings shareholders. Another $700 million in SAVVIS debt will be refinanced or assumed by CenturyLink.

SAVVIS Holdings' subsidiary, SAVVIS Communications Corp., remain a wholly-owned subsidiary of SAVVIS Holdings and an indirect subsidiary of CenturyLink.

Answer to Question 15

Following the proposed merger, the Section 214 holder, SAVVIS Communications Corp. will remain the 214 holder, but will be wholly-owned by CenturyLink, Inc. As stated above, CenturyLink will be affiliated with the foreign carriers listed in response to Question 14, each of which operates on a non-dominant basis in the jurisdiction identified in parentheses next to its name.

Answer to Question 16

The 214 holder currently is non-dominant and will continue to qualify for presumptive non-dominant status under Section 63.10 of the Commission's rules. It is not itself a foreign carrier, nor will it be a foreign carrier, following the proposed merger, and none of the exceptions to presumptive non-dominant classification set forth in Section 63.10(a) are applicable. Moreover, each of the foreign carriers with whom is or it will become affiliated as a result of the merger is non-dominant.

Answer to Question 20

This application qualifies for streamlined processing pursuant to Section 63.12 of the Commission's rules. Both SAVVIS Communications Corp. and CenturyLink, Inc. are non-dominant under Section 63.10 of the Commission's rules. Neither of the Applicants is, or has any affiliation with, a foreign carrier that is dominant or owns any facilities in any destination country. Moreover, none of the conditions rendering an application ineligible for streamlined processing set forth in Section 63.12(c) of the Commission's rules apply. Therefore, streamlined processing presumptively applies.
